

LME Board

Terms of Reference

1 Status

- a) The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of The London Metal Exchange (the “Company”) is the ultimate decision-making body within the Company. The Board shall be responsible for meeting the Company’s regulatory obligations, including but not limited to those specified within the “REC” section of the FCA Handbook. Taking account of the strategy of the HKEX Group, the Board has primary responsibility for establishing objectives and driving the strategy locally for the Company. The Board is also responsible for the oversight of risk management and internal controls.

2 Responsibilities

- a) The Board has the ultimate responsibility for the management, general affairs, direction, performance and long-term success of the Company and has the powers, authorities and duties vested in it by and pursuant to the Company’s Articles of Association and applicable law.
- b) Members of the Board must commit sufficient time to perform their functions on the board, act with honesty, integrity and independence of mind, effectively assess and challenge – where necessary - the decisions of the senior management, and oversee and monitor decision making.
- c) The Board must define, oversee and periodically assess the effectiveness of the implementation of governance arrangements that ensure the effective and prudent management of the Company in a manner which promotes the integrity of the market and satisfies its relevant regulatory obligations and recommend any steps to address deficiencies within the Company’s governance arrangements.
- d) The specific responsibilities assigned to the Board are set out in the LME Board Matters Reserved document.

3 Composition

- a) The Board shall be composed of a maximum of ten Directors, of whom:
 - i. One individual shall be appointed by the holders of the majority of the shares as the Chief Executive;
 - ii. Up to two individuals shall be appointed by the Board as Independent Directors; and
 - iii. Up to seven individuals shall be appointed by the holder of the majority of the shares as additional Directors. Such directors may be Executive Directors, Independent Directors or otherwise.
- b) A Chairman shall be appointed to the Board and selected by the Directors. The Chairman shall be deemed independent on appointment. Should the Chairman not be present at a meeting of the Board the Directors shall choose one from their number to act as chairman for the duration of the meeting.

4 Appointment

Independent Directors

- a) Independent Directors should be independent in character and judgement, be of good repute and must possess adequate collective knowledge, skills and experience in order to understand the Company's activities, obligations and main risks.
- b) The Independent Directors shall be appointed upon recommendation and/or approval from the Nomination Committee who will take into account the above requirements and other factors as they consider appropriate.

Regulatory Requirements

- c) The Board shall comply with all relevant regulatory requirements, including (without limitation) REC 2.4A (see the Schedule to the Recognition Requirements Regulations paragraphs 2A and 2B¹).

Term of Appointment

- d) Independent Directors and additional Directors who are not Executive Directors shall be appointed for an initial term of two years (or three years if they also serve on the Board of LME Clear). Such Directors shall not ordinarily serve on the Board for more than six years (or nine years if they also serve on the Board of LME Clear. In exceptional circumstances the Nomination Committee, subject to regulatory non-objection, may permit such a Director's term of office to exceed six / nine years for a limited period with view to ensuring good Board succession and continuity.
- e) The Chief Executive and additional Directors who are Executive Directors will serve until their appointment is terminated in accordance with Article 39 or 40².

5 Secretary

- a) The Company Secretary shall act as Secretary of the Board and shall ensure that that the Board receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration of all issues.

6 Frequency of Meetings

- a) The Board shall meet a minimum of five times per annum, in addition to one strategy day. Additional meetings can be requested at any time by any Director by making such request to the Company Secretary.
- b) All meetings, unless agreed otherwise, will be held in London. All Directors are expected to attend at least one meeting in person over a 12-month period, with certain Directors agreeing to a minimum of three (unless this is not possible due to unforeseen circumstances, e.g. travel restrictions). All meetings can be facilitated by either telephone conference and or video conference.
- c) Notice of meetings, including time and location, the agenda and meeting papers shall be provided to Directors no later than five calendar days before the meeting.
