Tables

6. Further to notice 21/064 on table bookings for the LME Annual Dinner 2021 and following on from the UK government announcement regarding the lifting of social distancing restrictions from Monday 19 July 2021, the LME confirms that the initial 50% capacity limit for the venue of the LME Annual Dinner 2021 has been removed and additional tables are now available to book.
7. These additional tables are made available on the basis that social distancing measures are not reintroduced in such a way that the LME is compelled to reduce capacity again. In the event that the UK government reintroduces capacity limits, the LME will refund payments made in respect of any newly available tables.
8. Members and other parties who would like to book or increase their table allocation should contact dinner@lme.com.
