LME Dinner 2022

Reminder date for the diary: The LME Dinner, the flagship event of LME Week, will take place this year on Tuesday 25 October. Tables are now on sale for members and other key stakeholders like warehouse operators, ISVs, committee-member companies and LME Metals Seminar sponsors. We very much look forward to welcoming the global metals community back to London for the dinner and the rest of LME Week.

LME responsible sourcing latest

There are now just over six weeks left until the first submission deadline for compliance information on 30 June 2022.

There's a range of useful resources on our website to help you, and you can also get in touch with our responsible sourcing team directly and they will be happy to assist. The resources are available in several languages, giving more details about responsible sourcing requirements, key timings and how to submit compliance information.

You can also listen again to our most recent responsible sourcing workshop, where the LME team addressed some of the most frequently asked questions on topics such as the status of Track A standards, how audits are intended to work for Track B and filling out the Red Flag Assessment for Track C.
